3 Robles - Honey Viborera - 400gr

Sweets / Cereals and sweet spreads / Honey

Viborera honey is produced in the town of Vega de Infanzones, on the banks of the Bernesga River. The hives located in these natural areas are nourished by abundant wild flowers, among which the viborera stands out. This flower is highly appreciated by bees as they provide a large and constant amount of nectar, as well as high-quality pollen. Accompanying blooms include broom, willow, horseradish, blackberry and thyme.

Pure honey may or may not be different from just plain "honey," depending on the manufacturer. A lot of products labeled "honey" actually are diluted with corn syrup, sugar and other lower quality ingredients. The addition of these other ingredients makes the "honey" sweeter and also reduces manufacturing costs, thereby increasing profits for the grocery store and supplier. Next time you are at the store, take a close look at the ingredients on a cheap bottle of "honey" and you might be surprised what other additives are in there. Plain honey has also usually been pasteurized and filtered multiple times to give it that clear, transparent look.
